

Use the following questions to complete this concept map about identity before your DIA visit.

- What does identity mean to you?
- What makes up one's identity?
- How might our identity be affected by the places where we live, work, play or visit?
- What parts of your identity are influenced by your family and your cultural background?
- Why might identity change over time?
- What things could transform one's identity?
- How might your view of your identity differ from how others perceive you?

Individual Identity: Using Details as Clues

NAME: _____

During your visit, complete the table below using your understanding of identity.

OBJECT Title, Artist, and/or DIA Number	DESCRIBE OR SKETCH a detail from the artwork that helps you to understand something about the subject's identity	LIST a few adjectives that you would use to describe the detail	WHAT DOES THIS DETAIL help you to understand about the subject's identity?

At the end of your visit or back in the classroom, use a different color ink or pencil to revise your thinking about identity on the Identity Concept Map.
