Staff and faculty from Macomb Community College were invited to attend.

Community Group Art Making

MORC (Macomb Oakland Regional Center) participated in Community Group Art Making Program.

Sessions began with a Visual Thinking tour in the galleries, followed by an art-making experience in the studio. Learner-centered teaching was employed throughout each visit, engaging each participant at their own individual skill level while encouraging personal expression and reflection. Two four-week sessions were held in 2016.

The DIA hosted the eighth annual Community Group Show in the fall where participants shared their creative process and displayed their work.

Anton Art Center's Senior Creativity Program

The DIA collaborated with the Anton Art Center to offer no-cost art classes and guided tours of the Anton Art Center to Macomb County's older adult population living in low-income or subsidized housing facilities and assisted-living facilities. DIA provided Anton Art Center with supplies and access to teaching-artists to facilitate accessible art-making experiences to these residents. This two-year program began in November 2016 and will extend art-making experiences at 15 facilities serving approximately 250 participants.

Empty Bowls

The DIA partnered with Macomb County's Assumption Cultural Center for an Empty Bowls event benefiting Cass Community Social Services, a Detroit-based agency dedicated to providing food, housing, and health services to those in need. Clay bowls were produced by DIA staff, decorated by museum visitors, and donated for a charity event to raise awareness of the issue of food scarcity.

Arts and Health Symposium

In April, the DIA hosted the Arts & Health Symposium in partnership with Art & Healing Michigan. Two hundred and fifty participants from Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties traveled to the DIA for the daylong meeting for presentations by leaders in arts and healthcare. The symposium featured presentations about arts and health programs from the DMC Children's Hospital of Michigan, Beaumont/Oakwood, Henry Ford Health Systems,

U of M Health System, Detroit Symphony Orchestra, the Detroit Institute of Arts, Wayne State University School of Medicine and the Alzheimer's Association.

The symposium included a panel discussion about the importance of using the arts to improve patient outcomes by CEO and presidents from DMC, Beaumont/Oakwood,
Henry Ford Health Systems and University of Michigan Health System.

Minds on Art

The DIA continued the partnership with the Alzheimer Association of Michigan bringing individuals living with memory loss and dementia (including Alzheimer disease) and their care partners to the DIA for gallery discussions and hands-on studio workshops. Participation is free and available to residents in the tri-county area. Four sessions were held in 2016, for early-stage and mid-stage participants and their caregivers.

The partnership expanded to include activities for tri-county residents at the Alzheimer's Association offices in Southfield. DIA trained volunteers facilitated Visual Thinking Strategies sessions based on images of artwork from the DIA collection. Sessions were held five times in the winter months.

Inside|Out

Inside|Out is a key component of the DIA's community engagement efforts. Over the past seven years, the museum has collaborated with more than 100 tri-county community organizations and engaged tens of thousands of residents with art in places where they live, work and play.

In 2016, 25 tri-county communities applied to participate in Inside|Out with 22 communities participating in Spring-Summer program. New images were added to Inside|Out to increase the diversity of images in the collection and reflect the diversity of the communities that host Inside|Out. Some of the new images include Blue Madonna by Bob Thompson from our GM Center for African American Art collection and Poultry Yard by Melchior de Hondecoeter rom our Dutch paintings collection.

Macomb County spring communities included New Baltimore and Warren.

Summer communities featured Chesterfield Township and Romeo

New Baltimore Parks and Recreation Department hosted monthly walking tours of the 11 reproductions throughout Downtown New Baltimore. Each month over 20 participants strolled around New Baltimore to hear presentations by a DIA docent. Warren Parks and Recreation Department, in collaboration with Macomb Bike and Fitness, hosted a bike tour and reception. Almost 40 people road the 12-mile long route through Warren and heard presentations by a DIA Docent. After the ride Macomb Bike and Fitness offered participants a wine and cheese reception.

Ofrenda Altars

A call for proposals was issued to tri-county residents and non-profit organizations for Ofrenda Altars- memorial displays to honor ancestors on the Mexican holiday: Day of the Dead. Selected artists participated in a panel discussion moderated by the staff of the Mexican Consulate in Detroit and their work was exhibited from October 21- Nov 6.

Thirteen artists were given a stipend to create their works at the DIA, and were also invited to reception in their honor on November 6.

Art and Authors

Macomb County residents participated in Art and Authors book discussions at the DIA.

Tri-county librarians, including staff from the Clinton-Macomb Public Library and Chesterfield Township Library collaborated to facilitate discussions and participants learned about the DIA's collection through related guided gallery tours.

January—People of the Book, Geraldine Brooks
April—Shanghai Girls, Lisa See
July—Priceless: How I Went Undercover to Rescue the World's Stolen Treasures, Robert K. Wittman

A skype session was held with Robert K Wittman to compliment the discussion of his book at the DIA. In addition to regularly scheduled Art & Authors programming, Macomb County residents attended an author talk by New York Times best-selling author, Lisa See, hosted by the museum in April 2016. This special program was made available through partnership with the Metro Net Library Consortium and Everyone's Reading, an annual community-reading program.

Dance! American Art 1830-1960

In conjunction with the exhibition Dance! American Art 1830-1960, the DIA produced a variety of dance-themed events and workshops, including family workshops and the Tribute to Prince held on the Woodward plaza in front of the museum.

DIA Inspired – Becoming a Dancer

The Detroit Institute of Arts presented Becoming a Dancer, a program inspired by the special exhibition Dance! American Art 1830–1960. Michigan natives Nehemiah Kish, principal dancer with the Royal Ballet in London, and Precious Adams, a ballerina with the English National Ballet in London, demonstrated the daily routine of a dancer's practice regimen, answered questions from the audience, and performed a short excerpt from the ballet Swan Lake.

Performances were held at the DIA on May 13 and 14, with more than 500 people attending. An additional performance was held at the Mt. Clemens High School auditorium, followed by a reception with light refreshments and a meet and greet with Kish and Adams.

Dancers perform a selection from Swan Lake at Mt. Clemens High School

The DFT hosted DAFT's (Digital Arts and Film and Television) 48th Michigan Student Film Festival featuring screenings of Best of Show winners in two categories: K–8 and 9–12 grades.

Scholastic Art Awards

The Detroit Film Theater was the site for the award ceremony for the 2016 Southeastern Michigan Region of the Scholastic Art and Writing Awards competition. The DIA partnered with Detroit's College for Creative Studies to coordinate the event, attended by approximately 2,000 students, family members, and guests over two days.

Director's Cut

DIA Director and CEO Salvador Salort-Pons presented Director's Cut talks in Macomb County to introduce himself to residents and provide an overview of the DIA's history and collections, including some of his favorite works of art, and share his vision for the museum. He also highlighted the many programs the DIA currently offers both inside and outside the museum's walls. All talks were followed by a question-and-answer period.

Director's Cut locations in Macomb County included the Lorenzo Cultural Center, Italian American Cultural Center, and the Assumption Greek Orthodox Church in St. Clair Shores.

Additional Outreach

DIA curators presented a lecture in the community to Society of Active Retirees-Macomb. Community engagement talks, detailing millage benefits and current museum activities, were presented to Utica Community Schools and the Mt. Clemens Kiwanis Club. A curatorial tour was provided to Macomb Cultural and Economic Partnership.

The DIA's conservation department collaborated with Detroit Public Television on a Virtual Field Trip providing access for students and teachers to a behind the scenes exploration of the conservation lab.

Transportation was provided for Lorenzo Tours/Macomb Community College and Anton Art Center for DIA's special exhibition Dance! American Art 1830–1960.
