The DIA provides free field trips, free transportation and access to K-12 students across Metro Detroit each year.

21,795 Oakland County residents participated in no-cost school field trips to the DIA. Complimentary transportation was provided to all groups.

The DIA provides partnerships for field trip experiences and teacher support through the following commitments to Oakland County partners:

Birmingham Public Schools – Teachers participated in Visual Thinking Strategies workshops and coaching.

Farmington Public Schools – All students from Lanigan Elementary visited for Social-Emotional Learning themed field trips and faculty participated in Visual Thinking Strategies training.

Student Services and Curriculum Development

DIA education staff consult with teachers prior to field trips to ensure that students have meaningful, educational experiences that connect to classroom learning.

Gallery teachers have expanded the repertoire of hands-on engagement strategies to further enhance all guided experiences

The DIA launched two new STEAM adventures, utilizing the Detroit Industry Murals in Rivera Court for grades 5-12 and in collaboration with DIA Conservation scientists in the galleries for grades 6-12.

A new guided field trip program was launched in order to support Social-Emotional Learning. This program was designed to meet the SEL needs of schools and make connections between SEL themes and art.

This year the DIA expanded the Meaning Through Art-Making program with 3rd – 12th graders. DIA studio instructors led learner-centered gallery tours and hands-on artmaking.

Teachers from Macomb, Oakland and Wayne counties met in January, March, and June to advise DIA staff and provide input on professional development workshops and online curriculum resources. There was an intentional focus to engage the Teacher Advisory Group around issues of inclusivity, diversity, equity, and access.

In the fall of 2019, three new educators (one from each county) joined the current Teacher Advisory Group cohort for a 2-year term in order to bring new perspectives to the team while allowing experienced TAG teachers to mentor new members.

The DIA hosted “Homeschool Afternoons” at the museum in February and June featuring art-making and guided tours.

Senior Program-Thursdays at the Museum

The DIA's Thursdays at the Museum program, provides tri-county residents 55+ with a different museum experience each Thursday of the month including free group transportation and concluding with coffee reception.

In 2019, the DIA continued to attract new audiences for the Thursdays at the Museum by broadening the menu of programs. A selection of special offerings is highlighted below:

Art Bingo: seniors learned about the DIA's collection through an art-themed bingo event.

America Let's Exercise: participants enjoyed a local senior dance group and presentation focused on healthy living and exercise habits for older adults.

In the Garden: seniors attended a special talk exploring the hidden meanings behind images of flowers, plants, and gardens in some of the DIA's favorite works of art.

Mother's Day Music: attendees enjoyed a performance featuring jazz, Latin, vocal, contemporary, and classical sounds.

Due to the success of these new programs, the DIA will continue to incorporate special offerings alongside the regular rotation of private film screenings, tours of galleries and exhibitions, and hands-on artmaking opportunities. From August through December, 50 interviews were held with Thursdays at the Museum program participants. Results will be analyzed and will impact future program planning.

Featuring original contemporary dance and live music, the programs combined live music, dance and storytelling to create a unique family experience. Each performance was followed by an opportunity for audience members to have a hands-on with the instruments in a special Musical Petting Zoo from McCourt Music and Meet The Dancers in a short participatory exercise.

The October performance was based on Peter and the Wolf, with narration by Stephen Henderson and Little Red Riding Hood was presented in November with music by Jordyn Davis, illustrations by Tom Knight and narration by Mahogany Jones.
