ROAM Reciprocal Benefits Policy

Qualifying members of participating institutions receive the host institution's member general admission rate for at least two guests (with additional guests at the host's discretion), member shop discounts, access to member-only events and lectures unless otherwise restricted, and member pricing for special events, lectures, and exhibitions where permitted. Visitors are encouraged to contact the museum they plan to visit in advance to confirm specific reciprocal benefits and any limitations.

NARM Reciprocal Benefits Policy

Reciprocal benefits through North American Reciprocal Museum (NARM) Association include free or member-rate admission, shop discounts, and reduced pricing on ticketed events at participating organizations. "Family" benefits vary by institution and follow that museum's specific definition. Visitors should contact institutions in advance to confirm their exact reciprocal privileges. A single asterisk indicates possible restrictions for concerts, lectures, special exhibitions, or ticketed events; two asterisks indicate privileges do not extend to institutions within a 15-mile radius; and three asterisks indicate both the 15-mile restriction and potential event limitations.
